Chuck Grant Award

This award was initiated in honor of Chuck Grant, known for bringing dressage to the Midwest regions, and a frequent MODA Classic competitor. It is awarded to the horse and rider combination with the highest average of scores at the FEI Level. Musical freestyles do not count toward The Chuck Grant Award.

2020 Winner:

Martin Kuhn riding Venivici, owned by Elizabeth Cronin

MODA Founders Award

Named in honor of the founders of the Mid-Ohio Dressage Association (MODA): Laura Crawford, Sandra Burnard, Hans D. Von Bredow, and Nancy Wentz.

This is awarded to the Adult Amateur with the highest single score from Training Level through Fourth Level, from Classic I (Friday and Saturday), who is currently a MODA member (prior to June 1st of this year). Musical freestyles do not count towards this award.

2020 Winner:

Kara Corpman riding Maestro

MODA

Mid-Ohio Classic Breed Award Winners

Unless otherwise stated, Breed Awards follow the same guidelines as Champion High Score awards for qualifying tests, with the extra qualification that owners/riders must have declared the horse for breed awards using the online form prior to the show.
